CLESTOCK TOCK TO A VIOLENCE CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO	2011/02/11 : CIA-RDP82-00457R011400220004-1
UNTRA Germany (Soviet Zone)	SECURITY INFORMATION REPORT
PIC Sowiet Repair Shops and Suppl	V Installations in the Soviet Zone of Germany
	CETTAIN TO S.
LUATION	50X1-
E OF CONTENT	AND THE PERSON OF THE PERSON WHEN THE PERSON WE ARE THE PERSON WHEN TH
	DATE PREPARED 2h March 1952
ERENCES
	The state of the s
LARGE
IARKS	The second secon descriptions for reside 1, the deletic valuable representations provides an english for the second managed derivers assessed
A ANNE PROPERTY AND AND A THE PROPERTY OF A STATE OF A 50X
lockenith the	s housed in several brick potato cellars in been recently discharged. The was relieved every 6 to 8 weeks including some which werden blo luciersdorf railroad station on were seen at a 2. Detween 15 and 19 January 1952	Solution and the state of the s been recently discharged. The was relieved every 6 to 8 weeks including some which wereon ble luedersdorf railroad station on were seen at a 2. Detween 15 and 19 January 1952, at the Soviet workshop on the p	Solution and there. Except for one German 50% depot were Soviets. The German workers had Soviet unit, which numbered 60 to 30 men, so by troops from Fuerstenberg. About 50 trucks, ocks, were at the athletic field north of the Alt. 22 January. Several trucks a large farm which housed artillery troops. (1) been recently discharged. The was relieved every 6 to 8 weeks including some which wereon blo luedersdorf railroad station on were seen at a 2. Detween 15 and 19 January 1952, at the Soviet workshop on the p (2) 3. On 15 January 1952, the Soviet operated by about 35 artillery soldiers. Except for a German soldiers. Except for a German Seventeen 122-mm guns, whose breworkshop. Shipments of small an were occupied by sentries. True belonged to the repair shop, ship	selection of there. Except for one German 50% of depot were Soviets. The German workers had Soviet unit, which numbered 60 to 30 men, so by troops from Fuerstenberg. About 10 trucks, ocks, were at the athletic field north of the Alt. 20 January. Several trucks a large farm which housed artillery troops. (1) seven trucks were converted into workshop truck premises of the maggon-Fabrik Lindner. Ammendorf, officers, 145 artillerymen and 60 Soviet female foreman, no German workers were employed there, eechblocks were dismantled, stood in front of the trus wore seen between the workshop buildings. The watchtowers in the workshop area which been recently discharged. The was relieved every 6 to 8 weeks including some which wereon blo luctured railroad station on were seen at a 2. Detween 15 and 19 January 1952, at the Soviet workshop on the p (2) 3. On 15 January 1952, the Soviet operated by about 35 artillory soldiers. Except for a German Seventeen 122-mm guns, whose bre workshop. Shipments of small an were occupied by sentries. True belonged to the repair shop, shu depot on Schuetzenstrasse, Rathe 4. In early January, former Jorman Air Force repair s was run by a unit of h to 6 eres	selection of there. Except for one German 50% of depot were Soviets. The German workers had Soviet unit, which numbered 60 to 30 men, so by troops from Fuerstenberg. About 10 trucks, ocks, were at the athletic field north of the Alt. 20 January. Several trucks a large farm which housed artillery troops. (1) seven trucks were converted into workshop truck premises of the maggon-Fabrik Lindner. Ammendorf, officers, 145 artillerymen and 60 Soviet female foreman, no German workers were employed there, eechblocks were dismantled, stood in front of the trus wore seen between the workshop buildings. The watchtowers in the workshop area which been recently discharged. The was relieved every 6 to 8 weeks including some which wereon blo luctured railroad station on were seen at a 2. Detween 15 and 19 January 1952, at the Soviet workshop on the p (2) 3. On 15 January 1952, the Soviet operated by about 35 artillory soldiers. Except for a German Seventeen 122-mm guns, whose bre workshop. Shipments of small an were occupied by sentries. True belonged to the repair shop, shu depot on Schuetzenstrasse, Rathe 4. In early January, former Jorman Air Force repair s was run by a unit of h to 6 eres	depot were Soviets. The German workers had Soviet unit, which numbered 60 to 30 men, s by troops from Fuerstenberg. About 60 trucks, poks, were at the athletic field north of the Alt. 20 January. Several trucks a large farm which housed artillery troops. (1) seven trucks were converted into workshop truck premises of the maggon-Fabrik Lindner. Ammendorf, repair shops Arado and Meidefeld in Megelin were officers, 165 artillerymen and 60 Soviet female foreman, no German workers were employed there, ecchblocks were dismantled, stood in front of the rms were seen between the workshop buildings. the watchtowers in the workshop area oks attled between the installation and the Kech enow. (3) the Soviet ordnance repair shop in the shop on Friedrich-Megemuehlstrasse, Strausberg, 50x
been recently discharged. The was relieved every 6 to 8 weeks including some which wereon blo luctured railroad station on were seen at a 2. Detween 15 and 19 January 1952, at the Soviet workshop on the p (2) 3. On 15 January 1952, the Soviet operated by about 35 artillory soldiers. Except for a German Seventeen 122-mm guns, whose bre workshop. Shipments of small an were occupied by sentries. True belonged to the repair shop, shu depot on Schuetzenstrasse, Rathe 4. In early January, former Jorman Air Force repair s was run by a unit of h to 6 eres	depot were Soviets. The German workers had Soviet unit, which numbered 60 to 30 men, s by troops from Fuerstenberg. About 60 trucks, poks, were at the athletic field north of the Alt. 20 January. Several trucks a large farm which housed artillery troops. (1) seven trucks were converted into workshop truck premises of the maggon-Fabrik Lindner. Ammendorf, repair shops Arado and Meidefeld in Megelin were officers, 165 artillerymen and 60 Soviet female foreman, no German workers were employed there, ecchblocks were dismantled, stood in front of the rms were seen between the workshop buildings. the watchtowers in the workshop area oks attled between the installation and the Kech enow. (3) the Soviet ordnance repair shop in the shop on Friedrich-Megemuehlstrasse, Strausberg, 50x
been recently discharged. The was relieved every 6 to 8 weeks including some which wereon blo luctured railroad station on were seen at a 2. Detween 15 and 19 January 1952, at the Soviet workshop on the p (2) 3. On 15 January 1952, the Soviet operated by about 35 artillory soldiers. Except for a German Seventeen 122-mm guns, whose bre workshop. Shipments of small an were occupied by sentries. True belonged to the repair shop, shu depot on Schuetzenstrasse, Rathe 4. In early January, former Jorman Air Force repair s was run by a unit of h to 6 eres	depot were Soviets. The German workers had Soviet unit, which numbered 60 to 30 men, s by troops from Fuerstenberg. About 60 trucks, poks, were at the athletic field north of the Alt. 20 January. Several trucks a large farm which housed artillery troops. (1) seven trucks were converted into workshop truck premises of the maggon-Fabrik Lindner. Ammendorf, repair shops Arado and Meidefeld in Megelin were officers, 165 artillerymen and 60 Soviet female foreman, no German workers were employed there, ecchblocks were dismantled, stood in front of the rms were seen between the workshop buildings. the watchtowers in the workshop area oks attled between the installation and the Kech enow. (3) the Soviet ordnance repair shop in the shop on Friedrich-Megemuehlstrasse, Strausberg, 50x

BEST COPY Available

SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS CELY

	2
	contents.		50X1-HUM
(1)) The tank repair shop at Althuedersdorf, which is believed to be only a small
`,	installation is affiliated with the	ed to be only a sma tank nonais shop	4.4.
	Muellrose. Its subordination has not been	determined.
			50X1-HUM
(2)	a waggon-Fabrik Lin	dner in Ammendorf housed a supply installation of the GOPG, which is possibly connected with the 54th Central Repair Shop in Leipzig.	An economic repor	t of early January 1952, which was not forwarded, indicate factors, formerly lindner Plant, of the SAS Transport in	ed that the body-bu	i.Ldin factory, formerly Lindner Plant, of the SAG Transmash in Ammendorf, was to deliver 90 repair shop trucks to the military during the first three menths of 1952. The repair shop trucks mentioned in the present report belong to the Third Shock Army, the Dighth 3ds Army and the First and	Second Ods Negg A	rmies
(3)	The ordnance repair shop on the premises of the Arado P	lart in Heidefeld m	ear-
	Roegelin-Kathenow was previously reported. It is believe	ved to be an ordnan	Ce shop of the IV Arty Corps. The true	ks belong to the I	₹ 50X1-HUM
.	Arty Corps.	_
(h)	on the contract of the contrac	to be an AAA repair	r shop, has not been determined.
			50X1-HUM

SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS OFLY